Funeral Ceremony

We are gathered here for the funeral of Sis. Oziti Adijatu Ajisafe . We know that when she was alive, she identified with the Deeper Christian Life Ministry. Since as a Church, the Bible is our guide in all matters of faith and conduct, and having received commandment from the Lord to do all things in honour of His name, we now perform this ceremony according to the principles of the Holy Scripture.

When someone dies, the incident brings sorrow. This is because death creates a vacuum that may not easily be filled. Death is an experience that is universal; It can happen to anyone at anytime, hence there is the need to appropriately and adequately prepare for this occurrence if we are to face it with confidence

This Scripture however reveals that there are different experiences beyond death. These are shown in the account of the Lord Jesus Christ in Luke Chapter 16. Jesus revealed that when one lives for the pleasures of the world with disregard for one goes to the great beyond to face punishment and torment from God. But when one lives for God, even though one may live in temporary adversity and sorrow one enters the great beyond full of bliss.

"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord..." (Revelation 14:13). God has set aside a day when all the dead in Christ shall come from the graves with heavenly bodies to glory above.

But the ungodly also shall be raised from their graves but to shame and contempt Everyone of us must choose where he wants to be after life here.

MRS. OZITI ADIJATU
AJISAFE

A LIFE LIVED IN FAITH.

TRIBUTE TO MY MUM, OZITI ADIJATU AJISAFE.

Our Mum was a very strong woman who had so much love to give. She was extremely prayerful, God fearing and meant the world to us. We love her dearly and we are so grateful to God almighty for giving us the privilege to have shared many memories and moments with her..Mum has been a blessing to our lives and to the lives of her grandchildren.

Even though you are no longer here with us, we can still feel you guiding us. We remember Mum's prayers and they have always followed us.

She loved us all and pointed us to her greatest treasure: Jesus Christ, the lamb of God who takes away sin of the world.

Your death has given us much pain, words are too short to express our agony and despair in our hearts, She will be missed dearly and deeply by us and even though her departure is painful, we know that she is in a better place and we thank God for that.

We thank God almighty for the beautiful life my Mum lived and for her impact. We love her dearly and we pray that she rests peacefully in the bossom of the Lord.

Mum died by faith, with dignity in Christ.

We have lost a praying mother, but we have not lost her prayers.

You will always be in our hearts, we love and miss you dearly.

DELE AND MARIA AJISAFE

My Dearest and precious Mother.

Life's best gift to me.

The one who brought me to this world and nurtured me from birth till date.

It's hard to come to terms with the fact that you are no more.

You were not just my mother, you were my guiding light, my confidant and my rock.

You were a beacon of hope, love, kindness and strength.

With you, I learnt how to weather the storms that came with life.

With you, I learnt how to expand my heart and love people genuinely.

As , I bid you farewell, I choose to celebrate the extraordinary woman that you were.

Your legacy will forever live on in the love we shared, the memories we created and the values you instilled in me and your grandchildren.

Rest on, dear mother, your love will forever be the compass that guides me and your memory the balm that soothes my grieving heart.

You will be missed but never forgotten.

MAAMI

EHIS - ORDIA OMOBOLANLE

THANK YOU LORD FOR CALLING MUM TO PERFECT PEACE AND REST.

Mummy! Our love for you is beyond words and we are yet to see someone love us as much as you did. It's sad, grief is a price we pay for love and if we didn't have Jesus, I am sure we won't be able to bear the pain we felt when you passed away.

'Life looks devoid of colour and flavour'. We don't even understand it fully apart from the assurance of the omnipotence of Jesus.

We still cannot believe that you are gone without warning and premonition. Life has really dealt to us one of its cruellest blows.

Dear mother, the strongest woman we know, is dead. Never to be seen praying, walking, laughing, talking or anything again! It has only been a few weeks but we miss you so much mum. There's a deep ache in our heart that can never be gotten rid of, a pain that can never be healed.

You were a great mother, a virtuous woman and a child of God. You served Him with all you were and all you had and that has left a lasting impression on us; one of your legacies we will hold on to for the rest of our life.

You were a gentle, peaceful but resilient woman. You raised awesome children, and great family of which we are happy to now be part of.

We miss you dearly. We miss your prayers, your calls, your jokes, and your encouragement.

We are grateful to God for your time with us and the life you lived. We thank God for the love and acceptance you showed us. We thank God for a life well spent.

Though we still feel the pain of your demise but we find peace and solace in the beautiful memories you created in our world. Though full of sadness that you are no longer here, you live on in our heart forever.

Till we meet to part no more, rest on in the bosom of our Lord Jesus Christ. We love you Mom, we will forever miss you and you will always be in our hearts.

DR ADEYEMI, MRS OLATAYO & ADETOMIWA OMIJJI

Mummy very difficult to come to terms that you are no more, but we take solace in the fact that you have gone to rest with the Lord. Yemi and Titi Solaja Iyaan as I fondly called you....you came, you fought, and you conquered. To God alone be all the glory for a life well spent, maami.

Though paths diverged and journeys changed, your warmth and kindness remain etched in the heart of your loved ones. Your unwavering love and gentle spirit touched lives with grace and compassion. May your memory be forever cherished.

LATE MRS. OZITI ADIJATU AJISAFE Aged 76 Years

LATE MRS. OZITI ADIJATU AJISAFE Aged 76 Years

It so sad to write a tribute at this time but who are we to question The Almighty God. Mummy was a devoted wife, a loving mother, and a cherished grandmother. She was a pillar of strength and a source of wisdom for the family. Her kindness and generosity knew no bounds.

She was a woman of faith, a lover of Christ with a deep love for her family and a passion for helping others. Her unwavering devotion to her loved ones was an inspiration to us all, and her legacy of love and kindness will live on in our hearts forever.

Although we miss her dearly but we take comfort in knowing that she is now at peace and gone to be with The Lord. We will always remember the joy she brought into our lives and the impact she had on everyone she met.

Rest in peace Dear Mother. You will be forever missed and always loved.

From Mr & Mrs Ademide Ajisafe

My Grandma was the best grandma anyone could ever ask for. She taught me how to love God and others around me. She was extremely caring and loving with a very unique personality that I loved dearly. I will miss my Grandma a lot and will miss hearing her joyful voice over the phone. Whenever we would talk she would constantly pray for me and my siblings, uplift us and fill us with so much love and joy. I will forever cherish her words of adulation and will forever miss my Grandma. I love you Grandma.

May she rest in perfect peace.

Tosin Ajisafe

Dear grandma,
I wouldn't say your passing didn't hurt us, but instead it brought some sense of comfort knowing that you are now at peace with grandpa. Even with the little memories I have of you whenever you came to visit, always bringing us food from Ilorin and making us happy, I still cherish those times. And not so long ago hearing about how sick you were really frightened the family, but you remained strong through it all. And now as you have gone to dwell in eternal peace I will always remember to stay as strong as you are, believe in our faith in God and so love even when it's not deserved. Rest in perfect peace Gran.
Love you always.

Ayo

Dear grandma,
My sister and I may have shared similar memories but I remember mine quite differently, from the moments when you would cook meals for us, especially Wara and even the times you would stop my mum from trying to beat me, I've always known you've had my back. Even during the times while you weren't your best you still showed that loving side of your protection. I miss you and I know you're happy in heaven with grandpa, even though it hurts to see you go so soon.

Love Nifemi.

My Grandma was always a loving, kind woman who was known for always being strong in her faith. But I also remember her as the woman who would feed me as a toddler, I remember she would even pray over the water we used to bathe with as children and I remember how every conversation we had was always a happy one, beginning and ending with joy.

Grandma was a kind, generous and sweet lady and she will always remain in my mind and my heart as a wonderful Grandma.

Tobi Ajisafe

Mummy was an inspiring soul, always there for all who came to her with their problems. Her home was open to everyone, and her hospitality made us feel important.

She was the most humble, compassionate understanding, family-oriented woman and one of the most beautiful soul one could ever meet.

I am going to miss you so much Mummy, may her soul rest in the blossom of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Deborah O. Ademola

Even if you are dead, You are not genuinely gone since your memories will live on in our hearts and minds because we loved you.

Hakeem Adegboyega Salaudeen

We pray for perfect rest for Mummy Ajisafe and the good Lord shall uphold the entire family she left behind.

Salaudeen D S (IYA WURAOLA).

My beloved sister, the news of your death got to me as a shock. I can remember how you used to call me sweet names like, Ozemi, Ozuka, Ozioho.... I will always miss your kulikuli, Iru and melon you usually bring for me whenever you visit Lagos and your Prayers. I know wherever you are now, you are running, jumping, and leaving your best life while at the same time Protecting us. Continue to rest in bosom of the LORD.

Abibat Shaibu

Mummy, the news of your sudden demise took us by a rude shock. Our believe is that you passed a happy woman, seeing the successes and accomplishments of your offsprings. Mummy may your gentle soul rest in perfect peace. Amen

Ayodeji Awarun

How time flies. In 1985, at sawmill, here in Ilorin. The wind of the gospel brought me to you and led you and the entire family to Christ. Since then, you passionately followed the Lord. In thick and thin, in the valley and desert, in life challenges, persecutions, and misunderstandings, you were focused on Jesus, your saviour. You lived a very simple life and did not bother anybody with demands except on how you would grow and be steadfast in the Lord. As you normally called me.. "omo mi ema ma fi misile fun rami," that is, don't leave me to myself. You did not joke with reading of your bible and prayers. My four minutes, 22 seconds, last discussion with you at 12.17 pm on the 8th of February, 2024. You did tell me, omo mi ewa rimi bayi, that's my son ,see the way ,I am now. Your voice shows that life was taking its turn on you. I encouraged you, prayed for you, and told you to stand firm and hold on even until the end of your life journey in order to meet your saviour whom you loved and served. Gladly, I heard about your last moments testimony as you were reading the book of Psalms, and in it, you said, Jesus, come and take me home, sure word ,heaven is your home, you were just a stranger here in this world, Jesus come and take me home, this was on your lips and then breathe your last with a glorious exit. Praise the Lord, you made it. In the sweet bye and bye, we shall meet on that beautiful shore.. Good night, mummy, till we meet at the feet of Christ.

Your son and your father in the Lord.

Pastor Joshua Oluremi Alabi

Mama's tireless efforts to build a better world for her children and for humanity as a whole serve as a testament to her unwavering commitment to the values of unity and togetherness. Her heart, overflowing with love and empathy, knew no boundaries and her actions were a living affirmation of the belief that we are all bound by a common thread of humanity.

A woman of deep faith, Mama was a shining example of piety and reverence, manifesting her devotion to the things of God through her acts of kindness and her steadfast dedication to serving Him faithfully until her final breath. Her faith infused every aspect of her life, guiding her with unwavering strength and inspiring others to embrace hope, resilience, and a sense of purpose. Aunty you left too soon. I thank God for the Christain life you lived. You were a very good and loving auntie. You loved my mom so much. You were dear to me. Your Christian virtue is evident of christ in you. You fought a good fight, you have finished your race and you kept the faith.

Mrs Tinu Oladipo

So sad I have to put this down with heavy heart about my Small 'Mummy'. I will forever cherish those moments I returned from Ghana as a boy and you had to take care of me. I will appreciate your meals then and instructions on my growing up. You were a wonderful Mummy. I love you but God Almighty loves you more and I Pray May you find a pleasant place in Aljanah.

Najeem Ajisafe

The words of a Christian songwriter are very apt at a time like this. He said, "What is this life but a vapour? It vanishes away."
Mama Ajisafe has played her part and gone to meet her Saviour. She will forever be remembered for her prayer life. Whenever she saw us going out, she would ask, "Where are you going?" Once the answer was given, she would say, "Ema pe o" (i.e. Don't be long) and add a prayer, Jesu a ba yin lo o.(i.e. Jesus will go with you).

She was an evangelist to the core. She was always distributing Gospel tracts at the junction of Yusuf Ajisafe Close. At the end of every month, she would also distribute her church's publication "Women Mirror" free of charge. If for any reason the publication was rejected, she would still bring the next copy at the end of the following month! She was very interested in hospitality even when it was not convenient for her. Our children certainly will miss the God-inspired cognomen (oriki) that she had for them all, I.e "Omo mi, olori ire, ("My child,the favoured one ").

Rest in peace, Mama.
